

red24 honours all security agreements with customers after gap-year firm Global Xperience calls in administrators

Global security specialist red24 has confirmed it will honour all its existing security advice arrangements with customers of Global Xperience after the gap-year specialists went into administration last week.

Jonny Simpson Tarling, red24's Commercial Director, said: "We have received a number of calls from concerned customers, especially the parents of gap-year students currently abroad with Global Xperience.

"We would like to reassure all Global Xperience customers who have security advice arrangements with red24 that we will honour our agreements and will continue to provide security guidance to them regardless of the current situation with Global Xperience.

"We have more travel advice on our website, which you can still view by getting in touch with us on 0203 291 2424 and quoting Global Xperience."

red24 has supplied Global Xperience's customers with advice since September 2007.

Global Xperience went into administration on Friday (March 13 2009) and is now in the hands of its administrator, chartered accountants HW Fisher. Anyone requiring more information should contact Abigail Jones at HW Fisher, via email at: ajones@hwfisher.co.uk.
