

Global Security Specialists

Jonathan Simpson Tarling

One of the founding members of the red24 team, Jonny is the company's Commercial Director, responsible for red24's sales, marketing and PR. He heads the business development and account management teams across the red24 companies. Initially joining as a security analyst, he was one of the team responsible for the creation of the Crisis Response Management (CRM) Centre in Cape Town, South Africa, where he spent two years developing systems and building the team of analysts.

Since then he has been responsible for research and development, implementation and training of red24's services globally. He continues to work with distributors and clients worldwide, adapting the product range and fulfilment for different markets.

Before joining red24, Jonny spent two years working in the Corporate Affairs team at the Hispanic and Luso Brazilian Council, or Canning House, in London, promoting corporate and governmental links between Latin America and the UK. He speaks fluent Spanish and Portuguese and has extensive experience and knowledge of Latin America, working on the ground in Brazil, Venezuela and El Salvador.

Jonny frequently represents red24 in the media, and has appeared on both the BBC and Sky News.
